

2019 in Review

Discussion Guide

Face the Issue:

Happy New Year!

This past Sunday, Jeremy shared with us many of the great things that God has done in and through Meadowdale.

The New Year holiday week is filled with lots of TV specials about “The Year in Review”. These memories can be wonderful and sometimes they can be painful.

What do you think people hope to experience through these times of remembering?

What event(s) in your life do you look back on as special evidence of God’s love and care for you?

How does this event affect your walk with God today?

Into the Word:

Read Deuteronomy 4:9–14, Deuteronomy 7:17–19, Deuteronomy 8:10–18

Why did God want His people to remember those things?

What indications do you see that these are important areas for us today?

Which of the above reminders do you think we are most likely to forget? Why?

Read Psalm 42:1–5

How did the psalmist respond when he remembered what God had done?

What do you find is the most frequent circumstance that motivates you to consider the faithfulness of God?

Read Revelation 21:1–4

What hope does God give us concerning the parts of our lives we would like to forget?

Apply The Word

As you go into this New Year, what personal steps can you take to keep the character and faithfulness of God fresh in your mind?
